Volunteering

What impact do we want to achieve?

- More people, organisations and communities in Wales benefit from volunteer involvement
- Individuals have high quality volunteering experiences
- Volunteers support the sustainability and governance of services and community resilience
- The contribution of volunteering to the well-being of Wales is championed and recognised

How we will achieve the impact

For each heading, relating back to the detail in the Core Service Standard, provide a bulleted list of your key services activities - your "offer" to the sector that you will deliver locally.

Theme 1: Grants

Detail the amount, source, beneficiaries, etc...

Locally we will provide the following:

- Administration of the local Youth Led Grants scheme. We will engage with young people in Youth Led Grant Panels through our partnership with the Merthyr Tydfil Borough Wide Youth Forum and promote and publicise through our Blog and other social media. Groups which received awards during 2016-2017 will be invited to a volunteer recognition event to showcase what they have achieved with the grant, and to encourage future applications.
- Publicise the Volunteering Wales Grants and other volunteering programmes using Inform, VAMT Blog, social media, mailing to member organisations. We will support potential applicants by advising on writing applications. We will also provide post-award support to help grant recipients to link up with relevant local initiatives and provide follow up support to unsuccessful applicants.
- The Deputy Chief Officer will provide input to the Volunteering Wales Grant making process through the Volunteering Wales Project Board.

Theme 2: Networks and Communication

Specifically highlight any innovative practice.

Locally we will provide the following:

- A bi-weekly outreach at Merthyr Tydfil Job Centre, one half day session targeting young people, one half day for general claimants. Bookings are made via JC+ advisors prior to the outreach, so potential volunteers are interviewed at the Job

Centre, maximising attendance at interview. Claimants are provided with additional, on-going support and advocacy while volunteering.

- A liV profile raising event
- Quarterly themed open days for organisations wanting to recruit volunteers
- Bi-monthly presentations to clients at Tydfil Training or as required
- Linking in to Bridges into Work's training calendar to deliver volunteering awareness training on an ad-hoc basis and to provide support at their job clubs
- Job recruitment fairs
- Attending other community based events as required
- 2 themed volunteer recruitment days
- Raise social media profile via the @VAMTvolunteer Twitter account <https://twitter.com/VAMTvolunteer> . Target three promotional tweets per week and seek to gain an additional 100 followers. The account is linked to Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/volunteering.tydfil> and an additional 50 "likes" will be sought. Relevant volunteering content will also be blogged on <http://vamtnetworknews.blogspot.co.uk/>
- A specific volunteering page will be included in VAMT quarterly magazine "Inform"
- Provide an up to date window display in the Voluntary Action Centre which is situated on the High Street
- With Interlink RCT develop a Cwm Taf Volunteers Management Network expanding the existing RCT network

Theme 3: Volunteer recruitment and placement

Locally we will provide the following:

- Maintain and update local volunteering opportunities on www.volunteering-wales.net by updating on a weekly basis.
 - Encourage local organisations to upload new opportunities through VAMT forums
 - Offer assistance on an ad-hoc basis to organisations wishing to upload their new opportunities
- For potential volunteers who visit the Volunteer Centre provide up-to-date information, guidance and sign-posting about volunteering opportunities and helping people into volunteering by providing access to the website
- Face to face interviews to assess needs, interests and skills on an appointment basis

- Maintain an outreach presence at the local Job Centre bi-weekly, to ensure that unemployed people are aware of the opportunities available to them
- Identify and develop local volunteering opportunities
- Broker placement of volunteers in suitable opportunities by referring potential volunteers to opportunities.
- Provide ongoing support appropriate to the needs of the individual and host organisation and follow-up of placements, after 6 weeks
- Promote trustee recruitment
- Promotion of the Millennium Volunteers programme
- Provide bespoke brokerage support for young volunteers
- Identify youth volunteering opportunities by maintaining links with organisations, liaison with schools, liaising with specific youth service providers to encourage the development of new opportunities. Promote 20 new opportunities.
- Recruit and place 35 young volunteers by attending Merthyr College and youth projects across the Borough, to talk about volunteering. When required, provide face to face interviews to assess needs, interests and skills on an appointment basis
- Provide support to young people as part of induction into the volunteering opportunity
- Register to the Millennium Volunteers programme 20 young people who have begun their volunteering placement. Award eight 50 hour certificates and two 200 hour Awards

Theme 4: Volunteer management

Locally we will provide the following:

- With Interlink RCT develop a Cwm Taf Volunteers Management Network expanding the existing RCT network
- On a regional basis, deliver training framework volunteering modules (B1, B2, B3 and B4) in collaboration with Interlink
- Direct advice and support to local organisations to implement good practice and to provide quality volunteering placements including;
 - Dissemination of the VAMT Information Sheets
 - Encouraging attendance at the volunteering modules which are part of the Infrastructure Training Programme

- Specific briefing and seminars on issues such as “disclosure and barring”
- Promoting range of good practice policies held within the Volunteer Centre
- Promote the Code of Practice for volunteer involving organisations and support the implementation of the Welsh Government’s Volunteering Policy
- Promote Investing in Volunteers (IiV) and PQASSO
- Provide advice and training on safeguarding

Theme 5: Raising the profile of the sector and volunteers

Details of any marketing campaigns, use of Social Media, events, awards etc

Locally we will provide the following:

- A high profile volunteering awards event or celebration of volunteering event depending on resource availability
- Recognise and celebrate volunteering achievements through MV and MV certificates being presented at Celebrating Volunteering event.
- Raise social media profile via the @VAMTvolunteer Twitter account <https://twitter.com/VAMTvolunteer> . Target three promotional tweets per week and seek to gain an additional 100 followers. The account is linked to Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/volunteering.tydfil> and an additional 50 “likes” will be sought. Relevant volunteering content will also be blogged on <http://vamtnetworknews.blogspot.co.uk/>
- Celebrate Volunteers Week in collaboration with TSSW partners
- Promote all Wales WCVA Volunteer of the Year Awards
- Gather local data and evidence on trends and the impact and value of volunteering via case studies of both recruiting organisations and volunteers which can be publicised via VAMT’s blog and Twitter.

Good Governance

What impact do we want to achieve?

- Trustees are more confident about leading their organisations and maintaining high standards of governance
- Third sector personnel, managers and trustees have the knowledge and skills they need to enable their organisations to operate sustainably, fairly, legally and safely

How we will achieve the impact

For each heading, relating back to the detail in the Core Service Standard, provide a bulleted list of your key services activities - your “offer” to the sector that you will deliver locally.

MAGNET (Community Voice)

MAGNET, the Community Voice funded project, will enter the fifth and final year of delivery and will end in November 2017. The portfolio consists of seven projects being delivered by seven different third sector organisations. VAMT's role is to project manage the portfolio. The project management of the portfolio involves ensuring that all the projects comply with the Big Lottery Fund requirements, that monitoring and evaluation is completed, budgets are adhered to and changes are managed effectively.

The final independent evaluation is due in May and is expected to be positive and further progress has been made since a positive mid-term evaluation. A celebratory event is being planned. It is hoped that some of the projects may gain continuation funding from alternative sources.

One Voice

One Voice is the disability element of MAGNET, managed by VAMT. The project will end in October but until then will continue to engage with services and support individuals organisations to expand the One Voice network within Merthyr Tydfil

Carers Information and Development Project

If continuation funding is agreed, the project will continue to support carers and carers' organisations in Merthyr Tydfil and lead on aspects of the implementation of the new Cwm Taf Carers Strategy.

Communities First South Cluster

VAMT will continue to manage the delivery of the final year of the Communities First programme in south Merthyr Tydfil and manage the exit strategy
